

ABAM Seal

The darkness within the circle represents the condition in which a person finds him or herself when dependent on or addicted to alcohol, nicotine or other drugs. The candle represents the physician whose skill, compassion and knowledge of the science of Addiction Medicine assists the addicted or drug dependent individual and family find new life, signified by the rays of light.