

Contact the American Board of Addiction Medicine

American Board of Addiction Medicine

4601 NORTH PARK AVENUE, UPPER ARCADE, SUITE 101
CHEVY CHASE, MD 20815-4520
Phone: 301-656-3378 Fax: 301-656-3815
email@abam.net

American Board of Addiction Medicine Administrative Staff

Executive Vice President
James F. Callahan, D.P.A.
Boston, Massachusetts
Term: 2007 –

James F. Callahan is Executive Vice President of the American Board of Addiction Medicine (ABAM), and The ABAM Foundation, and the former Executive Vice President/CEO of the American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM). He was Director of Smoking Research Application for the National Cancer Institute, National Institutes of Health; the Director of the National Institute on Drug Abuse's (NIDA) Medical and Health Professions Education Program, and the Deputy Director of NIDA's Division of Training. He co-chaired the White House Federal Interagency Committee on Drug and Alcohol Education and Training, and was a member of the White House task forces on prescribing and drug abuse prevention, and the American Medical Association's Informal Steering Committee on Prescription Drug Abuse. He directed the Narcotic Addict Treatment and Rehabilitation Program in Atlanta. He is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Theology from the Gregorian University (Rome, Italy), a Master's degree in Counseling Psychology from the University of Texas, and a Masters Degree and Doctorate in Public Administration from the University of Southern California.

Director of Operations
Christopher Weirs, MPA
Washington, D.C.
301-656-3378, email@abam.net

Christopher Weirs serves as Director of Operations for the American Board of Addiction Medicine and The ABAM Foundation. For the last ten years he has been a leader in the addiction medicine community and has been dedicated to specialty recognition of Addiction Medicine by the American Board of Medical Specialties. He is committed to a credential in addiction medicine that can be used by patients and their families to find physicians who are qualified to deliver evidence-based compassionate care for alcoholism and other diseases of addiction. Prior to his work in the field of Addiction Medicine, he did research on the diseases of Alzheimer's and Diabetes at both Bristol Myers Squibb in Wallingford, Connecticut and The SUNY Health Science Center in Syracuse, New York. He is a graduate of the Rochester Institute of Technology in Biotechnology and received his Masters Degree in Public Administration from the American University, Washington DC.

Director of Credentialing
Terri Silver, MA
Washington, D.C.
301-656-3378, email@abam.net

Terri Silver is the Director of Credentialing for the American Board of Addiction Medicine and the ABAM Foundation. She has worked for a variety of associations, including the American Society of Addiction Medicine, the National Association of Free Clinics, and the Semiconductor Industry Association. She worked in the field of international trade policy on behalf of the Washington Delegation of the European Commission; the law firm of Dewey, Ballantine; and the International Trade Administration of the U.S. Department of Commerce. Ms. Silver received her M.A. from the Patterson School of International Commerce, the University of Kentucky and her B.A. (in Economics & French) from Duke University. She is committed to bringing new physicians into the process of certification in the field of addiction medicine.

Staff Accountant

Noushin Shariati
Washington, D.C.
301-656-3378
email@abam.net

Noushin Shariati serves as Accounting Assistant for the American Board of Addiction Medicine and The ABAM Foundation.

Office Manager/Receptionist

Ruby Bailey-Edmondson
Washington, D.C.
301-656-3378
email@abam.net

Ruby Bailey-Edmondson serves as Office Manager and the Receptionist for the American Board of Addiction Medicine and The ABAM Foundation.